

Messenger

Messenger is the communication nervous system of PhoSend. It connects SMS, MMS, and internal messaging workflows through standardized message structures derived from Twilio XML patterns but adapted to PhoSend architecture.

Messaging components include:

Comm – communication layer

Lists – customer lists and segmentation

Down – inbound message handling

Out – outbound message generation

Messenger connects customers, images, and commerce actions across the system.